Marty Fuller, INS, AIC, CCLA

Senior VP, Distribution and Claims

Marty holds a Certificate in General Insurance (INS), an Associate in Claims (AIC) and is a Casualty Claims Law Associate (CCLA).

Serving Oklahoma's largest agriculture organization and domestic insurance company for more than 35 years, Marty is well experienced in many areas of the insurance industry. Beginning as an agent, he quickly moved into a lead adjuster role for more than 10 years before moving into the District Claims Manager position where he supervised in the investigation, negotiation and settlement of auto, property and casualty claims, eventually moving into a statewide title. In 2010, he began to lead more than 250 agents and agency managers as Vice President of Agency. Marty went on to serve as Litigation Director, managing and supervising litigation files generated from auto and property claims, as well as bad faith litigation and corporate litigation.

Marty now serves Union Mutual as Senior Vice President of Distribution and Claims, leading more than 300 agents as well as managing and supervising the claims process.
